BIG ALLIED DRIVE CONTINUES

MYSTERY SURROUNDS THE SINKING OF U. S. CRUISER YESTERDAY OFF LONG ISLAND

NEW PORK, July 20.—All the Atlantic harbors are being, are survivors of the cruiser San Diego, fully patroled with war craft and said to number over eleven hundred, have arrived in New York. found necessary are being taken. They were brought in during the night on rescuing ships from the cruiser which was sunk yesterday off Fire Island, just east of New York.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The Navy Department today waited for a complete report from the officers of the armored cruiser San Diego, sunk yesterday off Fire Island light, before making any statement as to the cause. Meanwhile, it was stated, every possible precaution had been taken to guard against the submarine menace, should a submarine, or submarines, be operating off the coast. But officers of the navy declined to speculate on the cause of the cruiser's loss.

In fact, the policy of the department today, as is was when the last admitted German submarine was operating off the coast, is talk little but to work hard. The coastwise lanes leading from the great such other precautions as have been

Work Kept Up

One thing upon which all naval officers agreed was that there would be no letup in the movement of troops and supplies to Europe. The navy takes pride in keeping that work up to and above schedule and even if submarines do come over here they will be kept from attacking troop transports on this side, just as they have been kept from attacking them on the other side, officers say.

DRASTIC ZONE LAW PUTS SAN PABLO AVENUE ROADHOUSES OUT OF BUSINESS

Drastic steps are to be taken by the federal government in a few days through United States District Attorney J. F. Preston against the saloons and roadhouses within a radius of five miles of the aviation school of the government at the University of California at Berkeley. Summary acton is to be taken against all such places.

A five mile radius from the school will take in all the territory of the towns of Albany, El Cerrito, along San Pablo taking in Stege Junction, and will reach the Pullman district and take in some of those lines.

As near as can be figured out a five mile air line from the aviation school at Berkeley, will almost reach to Twenty-Third and Macdonald avenue. It has been figured out that the distance from the government school to Stege Junction is 4.07 miles, and it is also figured that from Stege Junction and San Pablo to Twenty-Third and Macdonald avenue is one and five-tenths miles.

This order will do away with all of the roadhouses along San Pablo avenue including Sullivan's and the notorious Stag, and the other saloons at Stege Junction, and will leave a part of Richmond as the only wet district in this section.

The Oakland liquor business will suffer, too from the drastic order and many of the saloons will be put out of business, being within the five-mile zone.

WHERE THE FRENCH AND ITALIANS ARE DRIVING BACK THE AUSTRIANS—Italian forces aided by the French on land and British monitors off shore, have pressed forward on a fifty mile front in Albania, making the greatest advance between the sea and the important town of Berat. They have capturedseveral hundred prisoners and destroyed an enemy base, capturing a large quantity of war supplies.

SENATOR BREED IN TOWN TODAY

O. R. Morgan, proprietor of the Modesto News and Senator A. H. Breed, acting lieutenant governor and a candidate to succeed himself were in town today attending to political matters in the interests of the latter.

Senator Breed is making a thorough canvass of the state and before the primary election time rolls around he will have met the majority of the people of the commonwealth. He is already well-known, having been in the upper house of the legislature for several terms and will probably poll a large vote for the office to which he aspires.

BERNHARDT IS ATTRACTION AT ORPHEUM NEXT WEEK

Madame Sarah Bernhardt, the superlative is here!

This announcement that the Oakland Orpheum has launched in the tallest type printers can devise.

And even this type is not tall enough to tell the magnitude of the attraction that for the coming week will be seen at the Oakland temple of vaudeville.

For Madame Bernhardt is the most famous woman in the world. Madame Bernhardt is the greatest actress the world has ever seen or perhaps ever will see. Madame Bernhardt is the superlative of them all.

No flights of language will be or can be devised that will fittingly describe her art. Alexander Dumas has tred. Wilde has tried. Fleubert has tried, and all have agreed that they have been placed against an insurmountable barrier, the inability of any language to do justice to the star who is, during the coming week, to hold Oakland and Richmond audiences in a thralldom created by the greatest in Stage art.

The first part of the week Madame Bernhardt will appear in "The Theatre Au Champ D'Honneur," a remarkable play on the present war, written by a French officer at the front. The latter part of the week will see the immortal scene from Camille, her greatest role depicted on the sage.

Along with Madame Bernhardt will be seen a great vaudeville show—the greatest ever seen in the popular Oakland playhouse in many months.

MRS. ALVES FUNERAL

The funeral of Mrs. Alves, the young San Pablo matron who was called by death Thursday afternoon after a short illness, took place this morning at St. Paul's Catholic church in San Pablo. Interment was in St. Joseph's cemetery at San Pablo, the burial being conducted by Undertaker E. B. Smallwood.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS IS HOME FROM VACATION

City Superintendent of Schools, W. T. Helms and party arrived home last evening from their vacation trip to the southern part of the state. They had a very enjoyable time but Mr. Helms says there is no portion of the state like the bay region, and he is glad to be home again.

In the party were W. T. Helms and wife, Meta Ludwig, Claire Johnson, and Mildred Nesbitt. The trip to Los Angeles was made down the valley route where they found the roads in excellent condition. A side trip was then made to San Diego. On the return home the trip was made by the coast route, and bad roads were encountered between Santa Barbara and Santa Maria, and also between Paso Robles and Salinas.

The party were gone for about two weeks, and had splendid weather all of the time.

RED CROSS SOLICITORS MUST HAVE AUTHORIZATION

At a meeting of the Executive Board of the Richmond Chapter Red Cross it was decided that any solicitor for Red Cross in any capacity, whether ticket selling or chance selling or raffle must be provided with a card showing official authorization. For the protection of every one hereafter this card must be shown upon demand. In case the solicitor carries no card notice should at once be given to C. J. Crary at the First National Bank.

the Aisne-Marne front, has been captured from the Germans, according to a report reaching here today from the scene of action.

Soissons stands at the northern end of the front over which General Foch began his big counter drive against the Germans on Thursday.

The French and Americans advanced on Soissons on both sides of the Aisne river and brought the city under heavy artillery fire.

The Germans fought desperately to retain it, but the allies continued their progress, overrunning the plateau southwest of the city.

The Germans had hastily constructed strong new defenses to the west and south of Soissons and the numerous machine gun nests south and southwest of the city gave the allie considerable difficulty in extending their lines.

Soissons was captured by the Germans on May 30 in the initial phase of their dash southwards from the heights of the Aisne.

J. R. CERVENKA DEAD

Joseph R. Cervenka a well known boilermaker at the Standard Oil refinery died suddenly at his home in San Pablo today. He was stricken by an attack of apoplexy. Deceased leaves a wife and two small children.

ROSE LITTLE IS MARRIED TO ALBANY TEACHER

Married, this morning, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Little, 710 Bissell avenue, Miss Rosa Thankful Little to Harold Phillips Baldwin, of Berkeley. Rev. D. W. Calfee performed the ceremony.

Both of the contracting parties are teachers, Miss Little has been teaching in the Fairmont school and Mr. Baldwin has been teaching in the Albany public schools. Mr. Arthur Mathews and Miss Ruth Morris were the bridesmaid and groomsman, respectively.

Those present at the ceremony were the father and mother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Baldwin, of Berkeley, Mrs. C. L. Graber of Pittsburg, and Miss Stella Shoemaker of this city.

The couple left this morning for a short honeymoon at Santa Cruz. They have a cozy home fitted up in Albany which they will occupy on their return.

Undertaker E. B. Smallwood will ship the remains Monday evening to Arroyo Grando, the former home of the deceased, where the funeral will be held. Cervenka was 36 years of age.

Aisne-Marne district includes nine villages.

In a counter attack by the French in the Soissons district, Monte de Paris, one of the most important heights dominating the Soissons country was captured.

Another advance was made to a line embracing Ville Montoire, Percy and Tigny. The former is five miles directly south of Soissons and the latter are neighboring villages seven and one-half miles south of Soissons.

Heavy enemy attacks southwest of Soissons were repulsed by the French, who counter attacked and gained considerable ground.

PARIS, July 20.—The Germans have been forced to bring up 100,000 reserves to the army of the German crown prince as a result of yesterday's fighting and the French and Americans, after fluctuations have been enabled to fortify strongly the newly gained positions southwest of Soissons, says Marcel Hutin in the Echo de Paris.

LONDON, July 20.—Between noon yesterday and 9 o'clock last night the French and American forces attacking on the Aisne-Marne front gained an average of a mile on a twenty mile stretch, according to information received by the International News Service this afternoon. The total number of prisoners at that time was 18,000.

PARIS, July 20.—The Franco-American forces between the Aisne and the Marne have continued their advance, capturing five more villages, the French war office announced today.

The allied forces retook Mollay, Villiers-Helen, Neuilly-St. Front, Ley-Chignon and Vierzy.

PASSENGER TRAFFIC OF SANTA FE RAILROAD WILL GO TO THE OAKLAND MOLE

Indications are that Richmond is to lose her Santa Fe passenger traffic and that in the future this city is to handle the major portion of the freight traffic of the Southern Pacific, together with the present freight business of the Santa Fe. In addition to this a porton of the freight business of the Western Pacific may come to this city. This is in accordance with the order issued by Drector General McAdoo to conserve men, locomotives and railroad cars, both passenger and freight, until the end of the war.

Just what effect this drastic change in railroad affairs will have on the business of this city remains to be determned after the plan is

A wood was recaptured from the Germans on this front, also.

During Friday evening, the communique says, the Franco-American forces continued to fight their way forward over the ground on which the big counted offensive was launched on Thursday. South of the Marne the French threw back the German forces between Fossoy and Ouilly, and gained ground, advancing northward toward the stream.

CALL YOUR DOLLARS TO THE COLORS

Our country needs fighting dollars.

Every dollar that is kept idle or out of circulation in war times is a "slacker."

Every dollar that is safely banked finds its way back into some channel of usefulness to help win the war.

Call your dollars to the colors. Enlist them in an account in this Institution.

MY MOTHERLAND

There is a land stretching from sea to sea, from plain to plain, a land of endless plains and broad rivers and chains of mighty peaks, a land of towering cities, of myriad towns and villages, a land whose rocks are stored with priceless minerals, its fields smiling with bounty for the world.

Richest of all is this land in its folk—common folk like our own folk, no king or emperor among them all, but each one crowned alike with the proudest diadem of equal citizenship, a land with the light of the rising sun upon it and free with the vital breath of liberty. It is my Motherland! The land my father loved more than life.

The flag my mother's lips have kissed. This dear, dear land has guarded me, watched over me nourished me, breathed its soul into my soul. It is the land to which I owe all I am and have of light and love and joy.

My Motherland is on her knees before me. What can my Motherland need of me? More land, or greater riches for her fame?

No! My Motherland has heard afar the voice of Ramah of Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted because they are not! Across endless leagues of sea she has heard the cries of freeman threatened with slavery. Her eyes filled with tears, she sends her children out to save the world from death. My Motherland is on her knees before me, and the name she speaks is MY NAME!—Edgar Parks in the Congregationalist and Advance.

GERMANS PRAISE OUR BOYS

The majority of them are sons of foreign parents. These half-Americans, however, most of whom were born in America and have never been in Europe, express, without hesitation, purely American sentiments." This is not the language of an academic apologist of the "melting pot," designed to meet prejudice against immigrants at home. It is the testimony of a high official of the German Intelligence Bureau, whose papers, marked "Very secret," were captured by one of our men in France. The report deals with American prisoners in German hands, ad it complains in another place that these prisoners decline to give information of value to their captors.

Taken as a whole, the document too long for reproduction here, is a most fulsome eulogy of the American soldier that has emanated from any source. The American soldier, this German investigator says, is "alert," he is "full of native confidence" and "his nerves are not yet shaken."

The German people may not know that the American soldier is a big factor at the front just now; but the German high command knows and is pondering the fact.

A POSSIBLE MOTIVE

It is an arbitrary use of terms to say that "the German Ambassador to Russia has been assassinated at Moscow." Count von Mirbach represented Germany at Moscow, to be sure, but he was not an "Ambassador" in any proper acceptation of the word. He was a viceroy, a satrap, a governor of subject peoples in everything but name. The person of an ambassador is considered sacred even by people low down in the scale of civilization and intelligence. The unspeakable Huns at Berlin at the outbreak of this was restrained themselves to an attitude toward diplomats from semblance of moderation in their enemy countries left for a time at mercy. And the Muscovite's is a gentler nature than that of the Teuton.

Von Mirbach was killed either because he was looked upon as a tyrant oppressing the people, or else he was sacrificed to make plausible excuse for a German excursion to Moscow and the appropriation of more territory by the invader. The latter supposition is just as reasonable as the former. The House of Hohenzollern, which sends the youth of Germany to death in shoals without a qualm, would not hestitate to order the murder of one of its own diplomats to further its aims and ambitions.

TRAINING THE APPETITE

Politics—makes strange bedfellows, and war produces unusual appetites.

Before the war Canada didn't grow enough corn for chicken feed, and ate little in any form beyond the roasting ear age. The Canadian appetite wouldn't adjust itself to Yankee corn meal and corn bread. The war came along and with it a change of victualing.

Canada is going on a corn ration.

The country wants to save more of her several hundred million bushels of wheat crop this fall for her allies and ours who must have wheat to eat or starve.

She is going to sit down with the United States to breakfast of cornmeal mush and corn cakes. When she develops a taste for corn, her farmers will redouble their efforts to produce corn which will mature in the short summers of Alberta and Saskatchewan.

KERENSKY'S APPROACHING VISIT

Just how much good the Russian cause will derive from Kerensky's visit to the United States is problematical. Despite President Wilson's utterances that America should stand ready and does stand ready to help the Russian people along the road to freedom, there is an unmistakable feeling of resentment in this country against the Russian leaders responsible for the failure of that country to fulfill its part in the war.

Just now beating Germany is more important to the allies than setting Russia on its feet or helping Russia re-establish an organized government. Speed in getting our own troops to Europe; speed in co-ordinating the allied war plans; speed in the symatization of America's war industries are each more essential to the welfare of the world than the rejuvenation of the Russian people.

News dispatches quote the former provisional premier of Russia as announcing in London that he was working in the interests of Russian socialists. The socialists have not proved themselves popular in any country during the course of the war.

The debacle they made of their attempt at government in the Slav nation did nothing to alter a growing belief in their ineffectiveness. While Kerensky is undoubtedly one of the strongest men in Russia, and was for months hailed as its savior, he will find the accomplishment of real benefits for his country at the present time beset with hardships and obstructions.

FINDS RELIEF AFTER 30 YEARS "I'LL ALWAYS PRAISE TANLAC" SHE SAYS

"It certainly seems wonderful, after trying almost every conceivable medicine for the past thirty years, that a few bottles of Tanlac should give me that long hoped for relief, but it hos ond I'll praise it as long as I live." This interesting and remarkable statement was made by Mrs. Hester E. Napper, in an interview at her hesidence 1020 South Second West Street, Salt Lake City, Utah, recently. Mrs. Napper, who is the wife of a valued employee of the National Biscuit Company, has lived in Salt Lake City for nearly forty years and her many friends will be glad to learn of her recovery.

"Every since I was a girl of sixteen", Mrs. Napper continued, "I have suffered from stomach trouble in the form of gastritis and other complications, which as I grew older kept getting worse. Soon after meals my stomach would fill with gas and bloat me up, causing almost unbearable pain, and a pressure around my heart that almost cut off my breath. I couldn't eat an apple or an orange without it making me olmost deothly sick, ond milk was just like poison to me. I had no appetite at all, could eat no meats of any kind, and for years I simply suffered agony. At times I was almost prostrated with headache, and my nerves were all shattered. I was so nervous and miserable I could get no rest day or night, and felt tired oond worn out all the time Last fall my condition become so serious that my family was alarmed about me. I had given up nearly all hopes of ever getting relief, and was really afraid I would soon die unless I could get something to help me.

About the first of January I read the testimonial of a party I know, and who had gotten such wonderful results from Tanlac that I decided to try it myself. Well, if Tanlac had failed me I don't know what I would have done, as I think I had tried everything else. But it hosn't foiled me, I'm thankful to say. On the other hand I feel just like a new person since taking it. I didn't feel much benefit from my first bottle, but by the time my second bottle was gone I felt a gengral improvement. My appetite picked up and since that time I have had no more pain or smothering spells. I have taken three bottles now and can sleep all night long, and that tired wornout feeling has left me. I am not the least bit nervous any more, and my stomach is in such fine condition that I can eat meats and anything else I want without the slightest discomfort from it. I find real pleasure now in living, as I'm able to work and since Tanlac has done so much for me I feel like I ought to do what I can to let others know about it."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by F. B. La Moine, in Antioch by H. J. Schuman and in Crockett by J. Civiletti.—Advt.

Not One Chinese In Ten Thousand Has Constipation

except a few drug users, while about 90 per cent of the Americans suffer from this dread complaint. The FONG WAN HERB SPECIALIST gives the following explanation of this phenomenon. "When a Chinese is ill, he immediately consults a Herb Specialist and the cause is removed, but when an American feels bad, the first thing he does is to take a PHYSIC. This may relieve him temporarily, but repeated doses of such drugs eventually paralyze the bowels. As the bowels then no longer move naturally, physic taking becomes a habit, the weakened bowels drag, and there is a heavy pressure of gas on the rectum. If the poor victim be a man, the physician will usually tell him that his trouble is piles; if a woman, that it is female trouble."

By drinking the Fong Wan harmless Chinese herbs, hundreds of Americans have not only been relieved of their stomach and bowel troubles, but have been made normal again. Their testimonials are on file.

HOT BALL GAME IS EXPECTED BY DEITRICH TOMORROW

Manager Otto Deitrich of the Richmond Elks is expecting a hotly contested game of baseball tomorrow when the Pittsburg team arrives in this city to wrest the first place in the league from the local boys. Pittsburg has a strong line-up and has been doing a lot of practice work during the week and it is expected that they will be in a position to put up a mighty hot game.

While the Pittsburg team has been busy during the past week, the Elks have not been lying idle. Manager Deitrich has been scouring the woods in every direction to secure men and he has managed to get the cream of the players from the Coast League to meet the Columbia Steel workers and while these men are not permanent here, they are excellent players and will give a good account of themselves tomorrow.

As was published yesterday in the Record-Herald, Deitrich has secured all the old players he was seeking and while these are not available for tomorrow they will be on hand for any of the succeeding games his team will play and it is some team when it is all assembled.

It is expected there will be a big crowd down from Pittsburg tomorrow, for the big game. There will be a half thousand rooters, men and women and they are coming here to take away our laurels, if possible. Deitrich is going to make them look like thirty cents with a hole punched in it if possible and the Richmond fans should all turn out to see him do it.

GOSPEL TEAM ORGANIZED

A gospel team composed from members of the B. Y. P. U. of Calvary Baptist church, has recently been organized and will hold services wherever desired.

The young people are planning to spend many a Sunday afternoon visiting the sick and holding gospel meetings in out of the way places. Those desiring to arrange for meetings in the near future should consult Mr. C. E. Parker or the Pastor C. W. Bassett.

CLEVER STUNTS IN VAUDEVILLE AT RICHMOND PLAYHOUSE

The three Peerless Potters, wonderful American gymnasts will head a bill of unusual features at the Richmond Theater tomorrow. These performers have something entirely new in vaudeville which is the most famed act in this kind of vaudeville. It is filled with hair-raising episodes and is certain to create a furore of excitement at both shows tomorrow.

Hayes and Neal, a team of unusually clever actors, will put on a comedy skit entitled "The Soap Salesman' a sure laugh producer and filled with amusing situations. The skit has much original humor and fun. Other good numbers will be Senorita Sanchez, brilliaant Spanish dancer and Starr and Starr, the eccentric team who sing and have some up-to-the-minute repartee.

Of extreme interest will be the Pathe News for war doings "over there" and the feature picture with Harry Morey in "The Other Man."

PROMINENT DRY GOODS STORE OFFERS BIG STOCK SALE

The sale of dry goods that starts next Monday morning at the Jones & Walker store will be on a greater scale than was ever before attempted in Richmond. Circumstances have arisen that demand a reduction of their stock tos certain figure, Mr. Walker, one of the members of the firm, stated that this would require selling $20,000 worth of merchandise. He also stated that he wishes it distinctly understood that the entire stock is included in the sale, for this is unlike any end of the season or clearance sale in that it is born of necessity.

"We must sell the desired amount of goods within a short period of tme", said Mr. Walker, "and it must be taken from every department of the store. We certainly have not made the great sacrifice in price that has been necessary to insure the success of the sale, for the mere pleasure of conducting an event of this character, it has been forced upon us by a necessary readjustment of our business and the public will benefit by this forced sale."

PASSENGER TRAFFIC

practically tried out. Railroad men do not believe that it will prove detrimental to our interest, but that we will receive more benefits than otherwise from the new departure. While some of the passenger men may leave town on account of being transferred to other divisions, it is expected more freight train operatives will take their place.

According to rumors all freight designed for San Francisco by the way of the Southern Pacific and coming through this city will be transferred to the Santa Fe at San Pablo and ferried across the bay from the Santa Fe mole. It is not stated what is to become of the two large passenger ferry boats of the Santa, the San Pablo and San Pedro, but it is probable they will be utilized from the Oakland mole of the Southern Pacific for the increased passenger traffic by that route.

RED CROSS MOTOR CORPS WANTS VOLUNTEERS

A new department in which home folks can enlist and do their bit is the Motor Corps. This service can be used in various ways. It could do much good in responding to calls for gathering material for salvage, shop, for transportating anything for Red Cross, for doing emergency transportation of injured in case of any disaster. It is not enough that we be merely willing to go when asked. To do the work properly go and enlist in the Motor Corps service with the understanding that whenever called upon you respond immediately and without excuse, just as a soldier responds when ordered to advance.
